LORNA G. SCHOFIELD, District Judge:

WHEREAS, on March 23, 2020, Plaintiffs filed Motions for Issuance of Hague Convention Requests for International Judicial Assistance to Take Testimony Overseas of Frank Cahill, Niall O’Riordan and Richard Gibbons (Dkt. Nos. 1426, 1430 and 1434) and supporting papers;

WHEREAS, the President of the United States has declared a national emergency due to the spread of the COVID-19 virus. On March 13, 2020, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York issued a Standing Order concerning restrictions on entry to the courthouse. In that Order, the Court noted that the Centers for Disease Control had advised people to take precautions in light of the COVID-19 outbreak and that the best way to prevent illness is to avoid being exposed to the virus. On March 16, 2020, the Court issued a Revised Standing Order further restricting access to the courthouse to certain categories of people and, on March 30, 2020, operations in the Southern District of New York were further curtailed in response to the COVID virus. It is hereby ORDERED that Plaintiffs’ motions are DENIED without prejudice to renew on May 1, 2020. Any renewed motions may be filed in redacted form pursuant to this Court’s Order at Dkt. No. 1425.
